Docket No. CP2015-39

USPS MOTION FOR LATE ACCEPTANCE OF NOTICE OF EXTENSION OF PRIORITY MAIL CONTRACT 111
(May 8, 2018)

The Postal Service moves for late acceptance of its notice of extension for Priority Mail Contract 111. The contract provides for two ninety-day extension options, with notice to the Commission seven days prior to expiration. The parties exercised the first option by notice to the Commission on February 2, 2018. The first extension is scheduled to expire on May 11, 2018. Because of an administrative oversight, the Postal Service is filing notice of the second extension today, three days prior to expiration, rather than the required seven days.

The parties have signed a successor contract and expect to file it with the Commission within the next two weeks. The Postal Service regrets the oversight and delay in filing today's notice, but submits that no party has been materially prejudiced.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
